

SPIRIT OF TRANSFORMATION PROGRAM

Mentor Information Sheet

About the Women's Spirit Project

The Women's Spirit Project supports and empowers women who are ready to make positive, meaningful change in their lives through movement, mindfulness, connection and personal growth.

The Spirit of Transformation program is designed to gently support women — all within a safe, trauma-informed space. It builds confidence, wellbeing, connection and practical life skills in a supportive and nurturing environment.

Whether they join us in person or online, they'll be guided each week and supported by mentors to move them from possibly feeling stuck, exhausted or disconnected to building strength, resilience, confidence and hope — moving from surviving to truly thriving.

Each program welcomes up to 30 women (18+ years) and is supported by 10 - 12 dedicated volunteer mentors. There is no upper age limit.

About Mentoring

Mentoring is a mutually beneficial relationship where individuals come together to support, encourage, and guide others to achieve personal goals. While mentors are familiar with mentoring principles and work within a structured framework, the role is informal, relational and deeply human.

Within the Women's Spirit Project, mentors play a vital role in helping participants feel seen, supported and encouraged throughout their weekly journey.

The Role of a Mentor

As a mentor, you'll be a positive role model, support and buddy for the entire group and specifically to 3-4 people throughout the program and are asked to:

- Provide a listening ear, encouragement and positive energy
- Support participants during workshops, reflections and activities
- Actively participate in all sessions, including movement activities
- Complete a brief weekly check-in with each participant
- Encourage accountability, confidence and self-belief
- Promote empowerment

Program Content

Over the program, participants (and mentors) will explore a range of wellbeing, personal growth, and life-skills topics, including:

- Embracing health and happiness through gentle movement and wellbeing
- This Is Me – values, personality, and motivators
- Personal Growth Planning and goal setting
- Dimensions of wellbeing
- Setting healthy boundaries
- Reframing mindset and self-talk
- Mindfulness practices
- Emotional regulation strategies
- Healthy habits and nutrition
- Rest, Sleep and Breath techniques
- Women's health, including perimenopause and menopause
- Art therapy (Mandala creation)
- Awareness of community support services and resources

Weekly Movement

Each week includes at least one hour of guided movement for 'In Person' programs and 15 minutes for 'Virtual' programs, which will vary with programs but may include:

- Walking
- Resistance Training
- Yoga or Tai Chi
- Dancing
- Stretching and fun group activities

All activities are inclusive and adaptable for all fitness levels and abilities.

Program Delivery

The program is delivered by experienced women from the:

- Community sector
- Education
- Fitness
- Health and wellbeing fields

Delivery is supported by volunteers, mentors and the Women's Spirit Project team. We promise this will be a rewarding experience that offers personal growth, meaningful connection and fun.
